John Peter Coger, a son of John Nicholas and Maria Elizabeth (Wilheut) Koger, was born in Rockingham County VA September 17, 1753 and died in Braxton County VA in 1841. Peter enlisted in the Revolutionary Army from Rockingham County VA. He served as a private in the company of Captain Ragan and Lieutenant Harrison in the regiment of Colonel Skillern, his service extending from 1777 to 1781. He was at Point Pleasant when Chief Cornstalk was killed. Served under General George Rogers Clark in his historic conquest of the Northwest Territory in the Illinois Expedition. Peter also served during the siege of Yorktown and the British surrender there in 1781.

He applied for pension from Lewis County, Virginia, December 3, 1832, and in support of his claim are affidavits of John and Isaac Mace, Tunis McElwain, and Robert Hamilton. He names a long list of Revolutionary officers with whom he had seen service.

9 March 1837. Braxton County, Va. Tunis McElwain, aged 75 years sometime this fall by the best information he can get, having no register of his age, declares he has been well acquainted with Peter Coger from the days of their youth, about the time he was 10 years of age. Peter Coger and his brother Jacob Coger were absent at times from the neighborhood where they resided in Rockingham County VA during the Revolutionary War and upon their return he was informed by them they had been in the army.

It was the general understanding of the neighborhood they had been on the expedition to the Illinois Country commanded by Gen. George Rogers Clark. Peter Coger served in the militia on several occasions, once under Capt. George Cresman in Rockingham County VA. McElwane was born and raised in Rockingham County. He believes he was at the siege of York in 1781.

8 April 1837. Lewis County VA. Isaac Mace declares he has been acquainted with Peter Coger from his youth and believes he served a number of tours as private in the militia. He often heard Peter Coger talk of having been in the army under Col. George Rogers Clark and Mace served a tour of six months with him in 1777. They both volunteered in Augusta County. Peter Coger went under Capt. Ragen and he under Capt. Hopkins. They commenced their march from Augusta County in July or August to Staunton and from Staunton to the Warm Springs and to the Sevanah Fort, now called Lewisburg, and then to the Big Kanawha and to Point Pleasant, at which shortly after their arrival Cornstalk was killed.

29 May 1837. Lewis County VA. Peter Coger, aged upwards of 80, makes a similar statement of his service under Capt. Ragan. In April 1778 he again entered service in company with his brother Jacob under Capt. Abraham Bowman. Both he and his brother Jacob volunteered for one year, expressly to join the expedition undertaken by Col. George Rogers Clark against the British and Indians in the Illinois Country. By arrangement with Capt. Bowman he and his brother joined the regiment at Wheeling. At the time he volunteered he was a citizen of Rockingham County VA. They embarked on board the keel boats at Wheeling and descended to the falls of the Ohio and landed at the falls and built cabins on the island. They left a number of families and some soldiers for their protection.

Peter married Mary "Polly" McElwain in Rockingham County VA September 3, 1781. Mary was a daughter of Thomas and Nancy (Rector) McElwain. Peter and Mary lived in Botetourt County VA until 1794, and their five oldest children were born there. In 1794, They moved to Franklin County VA where they lived on the Blackwater River. In 1817, the family moved to Randolph County VA and settled on the Elk River near the mouth of Holly River. (This area is now Braxton County, WV). They bought land from Jeremiah Carpenter and obtained a land grant from the Commonwealth of Virginia for a larger tract.

U.S. Revolutionary War Pension Records for Lewis County VA list Peter as age 81 in 1833, and living with Adam Starcher. Adam Starcher was married to Peter's daughter, Phoebe.
